

Rubric Made Using:
RubiStar (<http://rubistar.4teachers.org>)

Making A Game : A Math Game

Teacher Name: Mr. Burns

Student Name: _____

CATEGORY	5	4	3	2	1
Creativity	The student went above and beyond the expectations and created a completely original game with elaborate decorations, which include color, textures, and pictures.	The student created a completely original game with some creative elements (color, texture, pictures, etc.)	The student created a semi-original game with some creative elements.	The student put a little thought into creating an original game with very few creative elements.	Very little to no creative thought went into the project. There were no creative or original elements to the game or the box.
Accuracy of Content	All content is present and information pieces made for the game are correct. The game was relevant to math or a specific math topic.	All content is present, all but one of the information pieces made for the game are correct. The game was relevant to math or a specific math topic.	All content is present, but perhaps all but two of the information pieces made for the game are correct. The game may or may not have been relevant to math or a specific math topic.	Some content may be missing or several information pieces made for the game are not accurate or the game is not relevant to math or a specific math topic.	Many of the required elements are missing or there was little content to the game and the game was off topic or not relevant to math.
Communication	The presentation is very engaging, organized and informative and the speaker presents or demonstrates perfectly.	The presentation is informative, but not necessarily engaging. The speaker presents or demonstrates with very little error.	The presentation is informative, but not necessarily engaging and the speaker presents or demonstrates with a few errors.	The presentation is informative only and the speaker presents or demonstrates with many errors to the point where, in some spots, it is hard to understand.	The presentation was not interesting or informative and the speaker's presentation was very hard to understand and confusing.